

Idaho Financial Literacy Coalition

14th Annual Piggy Bank Beauty Contest

Teacher Scholarship Application

Every year, we hold our Piggy Bank Beauty Contest which is open to all 3rd-6th graders. Please see our Entry Packet for all rules and guidelines for our contest, found at <https://idahoflc.org/piggy-bank-about/>

Thanks to the generous support of WaFd Bank, this year the coalition is offering ten $300 scholarships to Idaho 3rd-6th grade teachers to help support the purchasing of materials to create piggy banks to enter in this years' contest. Simply fill out this form and submit to information@idahoflc.org These scholarships will be awarded as quickly as possible, so don't wait to submit!

Teacher name _____

Email _____

Phone _____

Grade taught _____

School name _____

School location _____

Number of students _____

Are you interested in having a guest speaker share a financial lesson during your piggy bank building activity? _____

Do you plan to use the IFLC Piggy Video as part of your activity?

<https://youtu.be/T4eg6p4dBVY> _____

How else can the coalition support you and your students in this and other financial literacy activities?

Anything else you would like us to know?

The only requirement we have aside from following contest guidelines is to share a quick educational impact summary of your sponsored activity to information@idahoflc.org at the conclusion of your activity. Is this something you can provide? _____

Email this completed application to information@idahoflc.org